JUDGMENT

Petitioner had approached this court against the removal of the petitioner's minor son for continuous absence for more than 15 days. Thereafter an application was moved for readmitting the student and it is submitted today by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned counsel appearing for the first respondent that the son of the petitioner has been readmitted. In the light of this no further orders are necessary. Counsel for the first respondent submits that it should be made clear that it is open to the first respondent to take action if there is any act of indiscipline. Needless to say, it is open to the first respondent to invoke the powers available under law, if such a situation arises.

The writ petition is closed as above.
